GORYEB CHILDREN'S CENTER COMES TO OVERLOOK HOSPITAL Free Family Event Celebrates Expansion of Pediatrics in Summit Area

MORRISTOWN, NJ, OCTOBER 17, 2007 – Overlook Hospital, part of Atlantic Health, announced today the arrival of the Goryeb Children's Center in Summit, which means an expansion of medical services and pediatric subspecialties for the Overlook community.

"We are proud to bring the highest quality pediatric care of Goryeb to Overlook Hospital," said Walter Rosenfeld, MD, chairman of pediatrics for the Goryeb Children's Hospital at Morristown Memorial Hospital and the Goryeb Children's Center at Overlook. "Families of this community will benefit from an expansion of programs and subspecialties including cardiology, hematology/oncology, gastrointestinal, and adolescent medicine."

The Goryeb Children's Hospital, based on the Morristown Memorial Hospital campus, is sharing its name as the Goryeb Children's Center at Overlook. With 14 pediatric subspecialties, the center offers a family-focused, child-friendly environment complete with the expertise of nationally-recognized, board certified pediatric specialists. Programs include the Atlantic Health Children's Heart Center, the Children's Kidney Center, and the Valerie Fund Children's Center.

Overlook's services for children also include:

- Pediatric Emergency Department, staffed with a pediatrician 24 hours every day
- New and expanded Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (opened in 2004), with state-of-the-art equipment to care for the tiniest and most vulnerable patients
- Two new pediatric orthopedic surgeons to offer the most advanced care for orthopedic conditions that range from congenital abnormalities to trauma

To celebrate the Goryeb Children's Center, Overlook hosted a free family fun day from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 14, for the community. The party, held in the F lot at Overlook, included face painting, chalk art, live performances and dress-up. Hat makers and balloon artists greet children as they enjoyed playing games and eating lunch and treats, including candy and decorate-your-own-apple stations.
