Art Calendar Guidelines:

› Submissions must be the original work of the participant.
› By submitting to the calendar, participants grant Atlantic Health System a nonexclusive, royalty-free license to copy, digitize, store, distribute, publish, display, stream, advertise, promote, or otherwise use their artwork and their descriptions in any media or format (including the internet).
› Artwork may be submitted in a high-resolution digital format.
› Atlantic Health System reserves the right, at their option, to publish any selected artist’s name (minor children will be identified by first name and last initial), city of residence, artist statement, as well as publish or use any artwork submitted, for any purposes, without compensation.
› Personal information will be collected solely for the purposes of this calendar and will not be used for any other purpose. By providing this information, the participants consent to its use for the purposes indicated.
› Submitting artists represent and warrant that their submission does not infringe the copyright or other intellectual property of any third party.
› Atlantic Health System assumes no responsibility for entries that are incomplete, damaged, misdirected or delayed. By entering, participants agree to abide by these rules and the decisions of the calendar jury committee, which are final.
› Any artwork that is submitted by mail and is not picked up by the artist becomes the property of Atlantic Health System.

› Farris Family Center for Advanced Medicine in Pediatrics (CAMP)

Who: Are you a child or teenager between the ages of 4 and 18? Do you have a chronic medical illness or chronic pain? Do you want to see your artwork in a professional style calendar given to Atlantic Health System Administrators employees, patients’ and families throughout the state of NJ? Do you want a chance to win a gift card if you are chosen as our cover winner?

If you answered yes to any of these questions now is the time to get out your crayons, markers, paints, pastels, collage paper, computer (for digital art) or any other medium you like to work with.

Theme: “What Is In Your Heart?” Think about what makes your heart fill up with joy, excitement, calmness, comfort, and or love? It could be people in your life, places, memories, something in nature, an accomplishment, a word or phrase, a poem, song lyrics, a color, or a shape, just to name a few. Remember, your heart is your guide.

How: First, draw a heart on a paper no bigger than 11”x 14” inside the heart create the thing or things that fill your heart. You can also print out a template of a heart and create from there. Poems inside the heart can be included with your artwork.

You do not need to be an accomplished artist to enter or have your artwork chosen.

ALL PROJECTS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY October 15, 2019.

A panel of health professionals will review entries based on visual interest and creative expression. Twelve hearts will be selected for inclusion in the 2020 Calendar.

QUESTIONS: Please contact Stacy Alper, LCSW, pediatric behavioral medicine at 973-971-5785 or Stacy.Alper@atlantichealth.org for further information or with any questions you may have.
